

Current Studies Screening for Volunteers

A. Periodontal Disease (gum disease) Gum disease subjects and healthy subjects

Purpose of the study: Gum diseases are infections that are caused by bacteria living in the mouth, particularly in dental plaque. The purpose of this study is to determine if bacteria cause gum disease or protect against these infections.

Eligibility/Criteria for healthy subjects

- 20 years and above, males and females
- At least 24 natural teeth, without crowns
- Have healthy gums
- Be in good general health.

Eligibility /Criteria for disease subjects

- 20 years and above, males and females
- At least 20 natural teeth, without crowns
- Have gum disease
- Be in good general health.